

NARI's Future

Built on The Foundation

Milwaukee/NARI members hit the links in July for the 22nd Annual NARI Foundation Golf Outing. The event brings scores of builders, contractors, remodelers and landscapers together to raise funds for scholarships to encourage young people to enter the skilled trades.

Together with Frankenmuth Insurance, The Starr Group offers a program designed for its customers who are NARI members. Each profitable quarter, a percentage of NARI member premiums is donated to The NARI Foundation. "This is extremely important," said Tom Callen, Foundation President. "There is a coming shortage of skilled workers in the digital age," he said. "The scholarships help to bring talented millennials into the industry. We are very appreciative of everything The Starr Group does to support us and bring awareness to our cause."

Following dinner, Commercial Insurance Counselor Mark Pohlman (above) made the annual check presentation. The Starr Group is proud to have helped members surpass $106,000.00! If you'd like to learn how to contribute to this program, see the information below.

In addition to the check presentation, The Starr Group sponsored the 2nd Hole and provided golfers with the ultimate Golfer's "Preventive Maintenance Kit" complete with sunscreen, SPF lip balm and hand sanitizer. "This is great," one NARI member quipped, "But...there's no toilet paper!" (Ah! Thanks for the idea!)
